

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

A BLOODY DEED.

Three Men Strangled, One Fatally, in the Sixteenth Ward.

The neighborhood of Fifth street and Girard avenue was thrown into an intense state of excitement last night by the execution of a bloody deed which has this morning resulted in the death of one of the parties. About half-past ten o'clock Dennis Corkey, Timothy O'Leary, and Timothy Sullivan, whilst about leaving the house of O'Leary, on Fifth street above the avenue, were accosted by a man in a dark coat named Frank Quick. He replied to their remarks he was told to continue on his way home. This seemed to incense him, and turning to Sullivan he called him — and threatened to cut his — guts out, at the same time making a thrust at him with a knife, which penetrated his overcoat, vest, shirt, and undershirt, and inflicted a flesh wound upon the left side of about five inches in length. Sullivan at once turned and fled from Quick, who then made a lunge at O'Leary, but he fortunately escaped with a slight abrasure of the left arm.

Quick next assaulted Corkey, whom he stabbed in the abdomen, and then walked down to the avenue and on Randolph street, where he was captured by Officer William M. Larasson, of the Tenth ward, who had been following him. The first intimation Sullivan or O'Leary had of Corkey's being stabbed was his approaching them with his entrails protruding. He was at once removed to a drug store on Fifth street, near the avenue, where a doctor was partially attended to. This sight was a sickening one. A perfect pool of blood surrounded the unfortunate man, and his intestines were plainly visible.

Early this morning he was removed to St. Mary's Hospital, where he lingered until 12 o'clock, noon, when death ensued. Deceased was a shoemaker by trade, married, and resided at No. 819 Essex street.

Quick was taken to the Tenth District Station House, where, on being seized, he kicked and was found in his coat pocket, both it and the pocket being stained with blood. His shirt sleeves appeared as though they had been dipped in a bucket of blood. The knife is a double-bladed one, brass-handled, and about three and a half inches long. Quick is a cabinet-maker by occupation, about forty years of age, father of a family, and resides at No. 1533 North Fifth street. The Coroner will hold an inquest in the case to-morrow at 3 P. M.

EXAMINATION OF THE CITY BRIDGES.—An examination of the city bridges has recently been made by the Chief Engineer and Surveyor, who reports that the Girard Avenue Bridge is in an unsatisfactory condition, and should receive the early attention of the Council. The opening of the park on the west side of the Schuylkill has made this bridge an important one to our citizens, and therefore should be, in the opinion of the Chief, made perfectly safe.

The Wire Bridge at Fairmount also needs repair, and the Engineer states that he would recommend new cables if Councils had not adopted plans for a new one. The cables are not thought to be in danger of breaking, but there is no means of ascertaining the fact.

LOCAL ODDS AND ENDS.—The weather clerk apparently out of sorts.

—The new arrangement styled a door, at the Central Telegraph Station, is a bother.

—Prince Arthur was allowed to pass without being interviewed.

—Another drop of blood committed through rain last night.

—The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, of Pennsylvania, meets to-morrow in Spring Garden Hall.

—Is it ever going to freeze? Is the latest query.

—The butchers' ball comes off to-night.

—Market street needs cleaning.

A LARGE COLLECTION.—The congregation of the Universal Church of the Messiah, Locust street, below Broad, has for several years been laboring under a heavy debt. Yesterday morning was the time appointed to receive contributions for the liquidation of at least a portion of it. The collection was made, and to the astonishment of all it reached the sum of $1,000, which is more than sufficient to pay off the entire debt.

LARGESY OF A WHEELBARROW.—Howard Glading, at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, feloniously entered the cellar of building No. 1310 Poplar street. As he was coming out, dragging a wheelbarrow after him, Officer Book put in an appearance and took him into custody. The prisoner had a hearing before Alderman Massey, and was committed for trial.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Annie Sherry, aged sixteen months, was burned to death at half-past eight o'clock this morning, by her clothes taking fire from a stove, while she was playing, at her residence, No. 103 Adam street, Frankford. Her mother was in a neighbor's house at the time.

THE "STAR" COURSE OF LECTURES.—The sale of single tickets for any one of the lectures of the second series of this course will commence to-day at Gould's, No. 923 Chestnut street. The first lecturer will be Wendell Phillips, who will discourse upon "The Questions of To-morrow," on the evening of January 31.

ANOTHER ARRESTED.—A lad named Charles Green had a hearing before Alderman Kerr this morning, charged with being concerned in the robbery at the Newsboys' Home. The prisoner was arrested at 10th and Chestnut streets by one of the Reserves. He was bound over in $1000 bail to answer.

SEVERELY INJURED.—This morning Thomas McKellick, aged 21 years, fell from the third story of a house at Darby road and Chestnut streets, and was seriously injured. He was removed to No. 13 St. Thirtieth street, where he was properly cared for.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE.—About 6 o'clock on Saturday evening the barn of Mr. George V. Weeks and Mr. George Yeakel, near Chestnut Hill, was destroyed by fire. A ton of hay was stored on the premises at the time. The loss is estimated at $200. No insurance.

THE GALLIOWS.—A meeting of the friends of the "Repeal of the Death Penalty" will be held at Mercantile Library Hall, 15th street above Chestnut, on Tuesday evening, 27 o'clock. Horace Price will preside. Mr. Boyce and others will address the meeting. Admission free.

THEFT OF A POCKET BOOK.—James Wilson has been committed by Alderman Collins for the larceny of a pocket-book, containing five dollars, from a man who was making purchases in a grocery store at Thirteenth and Christian streets.

RESIDENCE ROBBERED.—On Thursday last the residence of Mr. Hammond, in the Twenty-fifth ward, near Harrowgate lane, was entered by thieves, and robbed of a silver watch, pistol, and a small sum of money.

ROBBERY.—Yesterday the wheelwright shop of Thomas Knapp, near Holmesburg, was entered by thieves, and robbed of a lot of tools to the value of seventy-five dollars.

CORNER LOUNGERS.—Yesterday eleven corner loungers were arrested in the Seventh district, and thirty in the Second district. The prisoners were all held to bail to keep the peace.
